

A diagram of a workspace layout. At the top center are two tilted rectangular labels: 'Screen 2' on the left and 'Screen 1' on the right. Below them is a central rectangular panel containing a grid of small squares and rectangles, resembling a control interface. To the left of this panel is a document icon labeled 'Paper sources'. To the right is a document icon with horizontal lines and a semi-circle at the bottom. At the bottom center is a chair icon. The entire workspace is enclosed in a large rectangle, with a line extending from the right side to the document icon on the right.
